

COLORADO SOCIETY OF SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of CSSP is to strengthen the effectiveness of school psychologists in addressing the academic, social, and emotional needs of children and youth in Colorado.

BELIEF STATEMENT

We believe that school psychologists have a unique niche in the educational process. We are grounded in research-based educational and psychological practice and collaboration skills that allow us to provide the leadership necessary for the educational change process.

COLORADO SOCIETY OF SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS BY-LAWS

Article I: Name and Objectives

Section 1 The name of this organization shall be The Colorado Society of School Psychologists.

Section 2 The objective of this organization shall be to serve the needs of the children of Colorado by:

- A. Taking a leadership role in advancing the education and development of children and youth
- B. Providing school psychologists the opportunities for both personal and professional fellowship;
- C. Advancing the status of school psychologists through professional growth and development;
- D. Representing its members' professional interests in relation to other branches of psychology, the field of education, other related disciplines, and the public;
- E. Promoting and maintaining high standards of professional preparation, service, and ethical conduct among its members as outlined in the Professional conduct manual and the Standards for Training and Field Placements of the National Association of School Psychologists

Article II: Membership

Section 1 There are six categories of membership in the Colorado Society of School Psychologists:

- A. Regular Membership in The Colorado Society of School Psychologists shall be open to any person who meets one or more of the following criteria:
 - 1. Certified or licensed for the practice of school psychology by the Colorado Department of Education;
 - 2. Actively engaged in the practice of school psychology;
 - 3. Trained in that field but functioning as a supervisor or consultant for school psychologists;
 - 4. Primarily engaged in providing college or university training for school psychologists;
 - 5. Retired from the practice of school psychology.

Regular Members are entitled to vote and hold office.*

- B. Early Career Membership is open to any person who is within three (3) years of graduation from a school psychology graduate training program; AND meets one or more of the following criteria:
1. Actively engaged in the practice of school psychology;
 2. Certified or licensed for the practice of school psychology by the Colorado Department of Education or is eligible for such a credential;

Early Career Members are entitled to vote and hold office.*

- C. Life Membership shall be open to persons who have reached 55 years of age, who have been regular CSSP members for at least 5 years and who are presently retired. Life members are entitled to vote and hold office and annual dues are waived.
- D. Student Membership shall be open to persons who are enrolled in graduate-level training programs for school psychologists and are not employed as a school psychologist on a full salaried basis. Student members are entitled to vote but shall not hold elected office.
- E. Associate membership shall be open to persons who are engaged in a closely related field of education or mental health and are not eligible for Regular Membership. Associate Members are not entitled to vote or hold office.
- F. Honorary Membership shall be open to persons who have or are engaged in activities that have promoted the visibility, understanding, and professionalism of school psychology and are not in the field of school psychology. The President shall recommend suitable candidates for honorary membership to the Council. Confirmation of honorary membership shall require a majority vote of the EC. Honorary members are not eligible to vote or hold office and annual dues are waived.

Section 2

The CSSP Membership Committee (further described in Art. V, Sec. 3) shall be responsible for preparing application forms, and for distributing, receiving and evaluating applications submitted by persons wishing to join this Society. Forms for applications shall be designed to cover the five categories of membership. The Committee shall be free to require pertinent data, and to investigate and verify applicants' statements. New members shall promptly be notified by a designated member of the Committee, who shall also collect the appropriate amount of dues from each applicant. Each new member will have access to the current by-laws via the CSSP website.

Section 3 Membership in CSSP may be terminated upon non-payment of dues or may be considered for dismissal for violation of the Principles of Professional Ethics referred to in Article I, Section 2.e.

Section 4 Annual dues shall become payable on or before July 1. Any member who fails to pay membership dues and assessments by July 31 shall be dropped from the membership roster. New members wishing to join this Society after January 1st shall pay one-half dues that correspond to the appropriate membership category.

Article III: Elected Officers

Section 1 Designated as "elected officers" shall be: the immediate Past-President, President, President-elect, secretary and treasurer. All nominees for elected offices shall be either Regular or Life Members of this Society and shall be voted into office by the entire membership. The presidency is a three year term which encompasses one year as president-elect, one year as president and one year as past president. The secretary and treasurer positions are two-year terms. The term "year" shall mean July 1 through June 30.

Section 2 Primary nominations shall be sought from the entire CSSP membership. Responsibility for preparation of the final ballot shall rest with the Professional Relations Committee. No name shall be placed on the final ballot without consent of the nominee. Preferential voting and mail balloting shall be employed. An option for electronic voting may be employed.

If, after the close of nominations by the membership, there is no candidate for a particular office, then it is the responsibility of the Executive Officers to secure a candidate for that office subject to confirmation by the Executive Council.

Section 3 In case of a vacancy occurring in the Presidency, during a term of office, the President-elect shall take the President's place and shall succeed to the Presidency at the close of that term. The office of President-elect shall remain vacant until the election for the ensuing year has been completed. Vacancies occurring in the other elected offices shall be filled by the Council, by majority vote of those present at the meeting where the decision is to be made. Fifteen days' notice must be given to members of the Council, prior to placing any vacancy on the agenda.

Section 4 Duties of the elected officers shall be as follows:

The President shall call and preside at all meetings of the Society and of its Council, shall appoint the chairpersons of the standing committees and of special committees and task forces (all subject to approval by a majority of the elected officers), and shall be considered a member of all such committees and task forces, and oversee all affairs of the Society (see Art V). At the end of his/her term the President shall report to the Council and general membership on the accomplishments of the other officers, and all standing and appointed committees or task-forces during his/her term. A further responsibility is to ensure that yearly income and expenditures are subject to fiscal review at the close of the current term.

The President-elect shall take the place of the President whenever the latter is unable to function, shall succeed to the Presidency in case of vacancy, and shall be bound by the agreement to continue as CSSP President during the ensuing year.

The Past President shall offer advice and assistance in whatever ways the incoming officers' desire, and shall be a member of the Council.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of all business meetings of the Society and of its Council, shall issue calls and notices of all meetings, elections, and other activities of the Society, and shall furnish copies of minutes for all meetings which have occurred since the previous mailing.

The Treasurer shall have custody of all funds, shall sign checks for disbursement of funds, shall keep careful accounting of all receipts and expenses, and shall provide statements on the condition of the treasury, to the membership at each general meeting and to the Council at each of its meetings. The Treasurer shall also cooperate with the Membership Chairperson in preparing the list of members in good standing and of persons eligible to hold office. Records of the office shall be made available to the Fiscal Advisory Committee at the close of the current term (June 30).

Article IV: The Executive Council

Section 1

The Executive Council shall consist of the executive officers, regional representatives, the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) delegate, the student/new practitioner representative and four program managers. The President shall appoint members in good standing to serve as members of the Executive Council with the exception of the executive officers and the NASP delegate who shall be determined by election. All members of the Executive Council shall serve as voting members.

- A. Executive officers shall consist of the President, immediate Past-president, President-elect, Secretary and Treasurer.
- B. Regional representatives shall be appointed by the President and approved by a majority of the Executive Council. Regions shall be designated to ensure that all areas of the state are adequately represented on the Executive Council.
- C. Each regional representative's term of office shall run concurrently with those of other non-elected Executive Council members.
- D. Functions of the regional representatives shall be to maintain liaison between their constituents and the Executive Council and therefore assure that their constituent members are fully represented. Communication shall be enhanced through a variety of methods including technology, regional meetings, etc.
- E. Functions of the student/new practitioner representative shall be to assure representation of the interests/needs of those entering the profession of school psychology as well as to create a method which provides for the introduction of new thoughts/ideas/innovations into the organization.
- F. Program managers shall oversee the areas of Advocacy, Professional Development & Standards, and Information Services. Functions of the program managers shall be to establish and maintain strong communication between committee members and the Executive Council, to advise the Executive Council on matters of importance by representing the opinions and perspectives of the committee members, to facilitate regular meetings of each program area, to determine operational needs of the committees, and to represent the interests of those committees through the program manager's council vote.

Section 2 Meetings of the Executive Council shall be scheduled at the discretion of the President or upon request from four members of the Executive Council. Council issues requiring votes between meetings may be addressed through alternatives to physical meetings, including, but not limited to: technology, telephone conference call, etc.

Section 3 A majority (50%+1) of voting members present at any meeting of this Executive Council shall constitute a quorum and a majority vote shall rule.

Section 4 The Executive Council shall conduct matters of business according to a list of standing rules. These rules shall be generated by motions of any member of the Executive Council. Adoption shall require a second and approval by 2/3 majority vote of the Executive Council. Any change in said rules shall require a similar procedure.

Article V: Program Areas

Section 1 Program managers shall be appointed by the President by July 31, with input from the chairpersons in the respective program area, and their terms shall coincide with the calendar and officers' year. Program managers are voting members of the Executive Council.

Section 2 Chairpersons of the Program Area committees shall be appointed by the President by July 31 and their terms shall coincide with the calendar and officers' year. Committee chairpersons are not voting members of the Council but are represented by the vote of their program managers. Chairpersons may appoint as many additional members to their committees as are deemed necessary, with the approval of a majority of the Executive Officers.

Section 3 All program managers and program area chairpersons may be nominated for and voted to any of the elected offices on the Executive Council.

Should the Professional Relations chairperson be nominated for and decide to run for office, he/she shall consult with the President in developing a plan to avoid conflicts of interest.

- A. The Advocacy Program area may include the following committees and/or individuals: Legislative Chair, Government and Public Relations Chair, Crisis Team, Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CLD) Representative, as well as others deemed appropriate by the Executive Council.
- B. The Professional Development & Standards area may include the following committees: Conference, Courage to Risk, University Trainers, Student Representatives, Professional Relations, the CDE Representative, as well as others deemed appropriate by the Executive Council.
- C. The Information Services area may include the following committees: Publications, Technology, Collaborative Relations, as well as others deemed appropriate by the Executive Council.

Section 4 Specific responsibilities of Executive Council members and responsibilities of program areas/committees shall be placed in the Policies and Procedures manual and updated annually.

Section 5 Ad hoc committees shall be created by the President to address special issues and interest of the Society. Ad hoc committees shall not have voting privileges and each term of office shall end on June 30.

Article IV: Dues Structure, Meetings

Section 1 Assessments or changes in dues may be recommended by and voted on by the Executive Council.

Section 2 Quorum for general membership shall be 20% of the voting members. A majority vote shall decide the issue.

Section 3 There shall be a least one General Membership meeting held during the year which will be held during the Conference.

Article VII: Amendments to the By-Laws

Section 1 Amendments to these By-Laws may be proposed by a two-thirds vote of the Council or by any ten voting members of the Society.

Section 2 Voting on proposed revisions or amendments shall be by electronic ballot emailed to all voting members or at the General Membership Meeting provided a quorum is present. A two-thirds vote of those returning ballots shall be required for adoption. Polls shall be closed 15 days after the notification date. Ballots shall be counted and certified by the Executive Council.

Article VIII: Dissolution or Termination of the Organization

Upon the dissolution of the organization, the Council shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the organization, dispose of all the assets of the organization exclusively for the purposes of the organization in such manner or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Council shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which have organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

107 Finances: The financial affairs of the Society shall be the specific responsibility of the Fiscal Advisory Committee.

107.1 Fiscal Advisory Committee is composed of the elected officers of the Council (President, Past-President, President-Elect, and Secretary, and Treasurer). Additional members who may have expertise related to the issues under consideration by the FAC may be appointed on an AD HOC basis by the President.

107.2 Budget Approval:

- A. Each committee and officer shall submit an Action Plan to the Fiscal Advisory Committee by a deadline set by the President, typically June 30 with proposed activities for the year and projected costs.
- B. The FAC shall consider all budget requests and shall propose a budget for each officer and each committee based on projected income for the year.
- C. The proposed budget will become the final budget upon approval of the majority of the Executive Council.

107.3 Appeals:

- A. In the event of a denial of requested funds, a committee chairperson or officer has the right to appeal the budget item to the FAC with detailed documentation of the need for the budget item.
- B. The FAC shall reconsider the request and shall give an explanation of the decision to the person submitting the appeal.
- C. Executive Council members will budget an estimated amount for travel expenses during each year to cover the expenses for mileage and overnight costs for meetings that are vital to the accomplishment of the goals of the committee.

107.4 Financial Authority: The authority of chairpersons and officers to enter into financial commitment shall be restricted to the activity of their position and to the approved budget of the committee. Any contract over $1,000 will require signature from at least two members of the Fiscal Advisory Committee. Budget requests will be recommended by the Fiscal Advisory Committee and final approval by the entire Council.

107.5 Reimbursements: All requests for reimbursements will be made upon CSSP reimbursement forms to the Treasurer with receipts attached. Upon approval of the Treasurer, reimbursements will be made to the requester within a one-month time period. It is required that all board members requesting reimbursement fulfill the duties of their position as described in the Policy and Procedures Manual.

- A. Reimbursement for meetings: Mileage reimbursement will be made to Executive Council members who travel over 100 miles during the fiscal year to attend Council meetings or emergency meetings of the Society, with the exception of the annual conference and the annual planning retreat with proper documentation. Subsequent mileage will be reimbursed at 50% of the 2-wheel drive state government rate.
- B. Overnight lodging reimbursement of up to $100.00 will be made to Executive Council members who travel over 100 miles one way to attend Council meetings or emergency meetings of the Society with the exception of the annual conference and the annual planning retreat.
- C. Each committee shall budget for the travel expenses of its chairperson through the annual action planning process.
- D. Executive Council members will budget an estimated amount for travel expenses during each year to cover the expenses for mileage and overnight costs for meetings that are vital to the accomplishment of the goals of the committee.

107.6 NASP: Annual NASP Convention expenses (transportation, registration, meals, and lodging) will be reimbursed by CSSP for the President and President-Elect. In addition, NASP sponsored leadership training expenses (transportation, registration, meals, and lodging) for one conference will be paid by CSSP for the President and President-Elect if NASP does not cover the expenses. In both cases, lodging will be reimbursed at 50% for the President-Elect.

107.7 Student Representatives: Student Representatives will submit an annual budget for approval by the FAC for use at their respective University or at the convention to cover costs of a meeting to promote CSSP membership and professional awareness among school psychology students.

107.8 Accountability:

- A. Each Executive Council member is required to submit an end of the year report to the Treasurer and to the President documenting activities and expenses for the year. The report must be sent to the President and the Treasurer by June 30.

- B. The Treasurer is responsible for reporting quarterly expenses, encumbrances, and balances to each Executive Council member. An annual audit is also the responsibility of the Treasurer to ensure the fiscal affairs of the Society are in order.

107.9 Meeting Reimbursement: Authorization for meeting reimbursement not included in the annual budget request must be pre-approved by the President and Treasurer to ensure accountability.

107.10 Reserve Fund: The Society shall maintain a reserve fund which will reflect 20% of the annual budget projection to the extent possible.

107.11 Budget

- A. It is the responsibility of each Executive Council member to maintain a balanced budget.
- B. The Treasurer is responsible for:
